

BUY WORCESTER NOW PARTICIPATING PARTNERS

A number of local retail stores and businesses have agreed to participate in the Buy Worcester Now Program. These organizations will offer rewards and savings to new homeowners who purchase a home in the City of Worcester through the Buy Worcester Now Program. To participate in the Buy Worcester Now Program, buyers must secure a mortgage through a Participating Lender. To find a Participating Lender, please visit www.buyworcesternow.com and click on the Participating Lenders link.

Charter Communications, a local cable provider, will offer members $100 in savings off cable, Internet, and phone service.

EcoTarium, a museum of science and nature, will offer discounts off admission to their museum and Alden Digital Planetarium.

Gold's Gym will offer two months free on the purchase of an individual membership to its 40 Millbrook Street facility, or waive the $69 enrollment fee charge.

The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts, located in downtown Worcester, will offer members 4 (four) complimentary tickets to a Broadway show or performance at the theatre. Please note that select shows are eligible for this incentive.

Percy's TV and Appliance Center, located off of Glennie Street, will offer members $200 savings off of any purchase over $2,000, and free delivery.

New England's Largest Furniture & Carpet Store

Rotmans Furniture and Carpet Store, located off of Southbridge Street, will offer members a free interior design consultation and a $100 gift certificate towards any new purchase at Rotmans.

telegram.com

Worcester Telegram & Gazette, the hometown newspaper, will offer members a free, three-month, 7-day-a-week subscription to the local newspaper.

The Central Community Branch YMCA will offer members a free, 3-month family membership to its Main Street facility for use of all available amenities (includes swimming pool, indoor track, racquetball courts, rock climbing gym, and more).

Interested in more information?

Visit www.BuyWorcesterNow.com or call 508-799-1902